

Ellen Dail is the PK-2 grade counselor. Mrs. Dail works with individual students, small groups and goes into classrooms to do guidance lessons. She is also available to consult with parents and teachers on social, emotional and academic areas.

Mrs. Dail believes and works to help students feel connected, accepted and safe in the school environment.

What Mrs. Dail wants for herself and her students is to...

*“Do all the good you can, By all the means you can,
In all the ways you can, In all the places you can,
At all the times you can, to all the people you can,
As long as ever you can”. - John Wesley*
