Commitment and Performance Dates

Before making a commitment to this club, please consider the following:

- ♪ Attendance at every practice is important so that you can learn the music.
- ♪ Our chorus "uniform" is a white button down shirt/blouse, with black colored pants/black belt, and black closed-toe shoes.
- ♪ If something comes up and you need to miss a practice or performance, please communicate with Mrs. Knoblauch ahead of time. Only two unexcused absences will be permitted this season. Excused absences are due to sickness or family emergency.

The goal is for us to unite in our singing and our friendships. This means you understand that when you are at practice, you will do your best to learn the music, and get along with others, so that our best singing and character can shine through!
- ♪ We have several performances this season; the dates will be released in our first rehearsal, as well as the repertoire. Please make a commitment to participate in these performances as much as possible. If there is a schedule conflict with performances, please contact me as soon as possible.
