

VRA Reading Challenge

How to participate

From September 3rd through March 31st, read a book, complete one of the book projects, and earn points toward awards—individually, for your grade level, and for the whole school.

School-wide goal and rewards

With 80% participation of at least one book and project completed: Reward = ice cream bar at lunch, sponsored by the VRA PTO

Grade level goal and rewards

Classes with 100% participation of at least three books: Reward = donuts at lunch, sponsored by the VRA PTO

Grade level with the most books read: Reward = extra recess / afternoon activity

Individual rewards

1 book and project = Homework pass (1st time only)

5 books and projects = Prize from Box

10 books and projects = Raffle ticket for VRA Swag gift baskets sponsored by PTO

15 books and projects = Catered lunch and movie

VRA Reading Challenge Guidelines

- Books that are part of the class curriculum and are read and taught in school do not count towards the contest.
- Books you read last year, last month, etc. do not count. Please maintain the integrity of the challenge and only count books you have read between now and March 31st.
- Books should be checked out from the school library or classroom libraries. Books should be age and reading level appropriate. If in doubt, ask your teacher or Ms. Barnett. If you are checking out a book from elsewhere or reading something from home, just make sure it meets the requirements.
- When you complete a book and the selected project, please submit them to the media center for approval.